Exodus 2: 1-10

Moses and the Plagues

Moses and the Exodus

God wanted Moses and Aaron to speak with Pharaoh about letting the Israelites leave Egypt. Moses didn't think that Pharaoh would listen to him.

God told Moses, "Tell Pharaoh everything I tell you. He will not listen to you. But after many acts of judgment, Pharaoh will let my people leave Egypt." Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. Aaron threw down his staff and it became a snake. Pharaoh found magicians to do the same. Pharaoh did not want to let God's people leave Egypt.

Ten bad things, called plagues, had to happen before the Pharaoh finally let God's people leave Egypt.

1. The Nile River was turned to blood.
2. Frogs filled the river and the land.
3. The dust turned into gnats and covered the men and animals.
4. Flies filled Egypt and ruined the land.
5. All the Egyptians' livestock died.
6. Boils broke out on the Egyptians and their animals.

7. Hail and fire came down and hit plants, people, and animals.
8. Locust ate everything left in the land.
9. Darkness covered all of Egypt for three days.
10. Every firstborn son in Egypt died.

Pharaoh, Pharaoh

To the tune "Louie, Louie".

Pharaoh, Pharaoh (hands with palms together over the head)
ooh baby, (point fingers down) let my people go (throw arms and thumbs over shoulder)
Ya ya ya ya (fingers spread, shake over head)
I said, Pharaoh, Pharaoh, ooh baby, let my people go
Ya ya ya ya

The king would not listen to Moses. He did not believe that Moses was sent by God. God sent the ten plagues to make the king listen. Find God’s message by colouring all of the bugs that contain lower case letters. Copy the CAPITAL letters that are left in the area provided to see God’s message.

Every week in the 613 kids group, we talk about expectations, like respect for each other and respect for property and the space, listening to each other, taking turns, being polite, and participating in what we are all doing. Andrea, Kristine and Terri would like the 613 families to know that we are having so much fun together because the kids have been so great about all of these things. Thank you again for reinforcing the importance of these things with your kids. They have been doing an amazing job!

Next week it will be December!

We will talk about Advent next week.

Do you know what Advent is about?

What do you do while you are waiting for Christmas?

Do you have any traditions for Chrstmas in your family?
