Truth and Honesty

The LORD detests lying lips, but he delights in people who are trustworthy. - Proverbs 12:22

Whoever is careless with the truth in small matters cannot be trusted with important matters — Albert Einstein

Honesty and transparency make you vulnerable. Be honest and transparent anyway. – Mother Teresa

No legacy is so rich as honesty.
- William Shakspeare

We explored the fruits of the spirit – Now we are going to make our own vegetables too!

Our first veggie is Honesty! In the weeks ahead we will also be looking at courage, forgiveness, generosity, wisdom, acceptance, and others.

Don't forget, we should have a diet rich in fruits and vegetables!

Honesty is more than just accurately reporting facts. It includes what you say, and it also includes what you don't say! For example, if your mom asks, "Did you eat the cookies?" you could accurately say "no" if you just ate one cookie. But that would be deceitful.

Honesty also includes your actions. For example, to cheat on a test is to pretend you know the answers when you really don't. Or to steal candy from a store is to act like you paid for it when you really didn't. Honesty means saying and doing what is true, not false.
