Wisdom

Definition: Applying truth to my daily decisions

I WILL...

- Listen to my parents and teachers.
- Learn from mistakes.
- Choose my friends carefully.
- Consider the consequences.
- Ask, "What is the right thing to do?"

The owl has been a symbol of wisdom for centuries. It has two large eyes and excellent hearing, allowing it to receive large amounts of information.

Parent's Corner

Being wise is different than being smart. A smart person knows a lot of facts, but a wise person is able to apply those facts to the situation at hand. Instead of just telling children what to do, help them think through their decisions by asking, "What would be the wise thing to do?" You can break it down even further by asking, "Is that being responsible?" or "Is that being respectful?" or "Is that really true?" This kind of thinking leads to better decisions.
